DEMORSE'S INVICORATING CORDIAL

TOR GENITAL BEBILITY, IMPOTENCY, INCONTPNENCE, OR NOOTURNAL EMISSIONS, &c.—The astonishing success which has attended this invaluable medicine, for Loss of Muscular Energy, Physical Lassitude, and General Prostration, or any of the consequences of youthful indiscretion, or indulgence of the passion in riper years, research in fact, as a remedy for the above complaints, it stands unrivalled and alone. There is no other reliable remedy, or any that has authentically received the sanction of the Medical Faculty. The WONDERFUL VEGETABLE PRODUCTION of which this medicine is composed has been tested, and its virtues proclaimed, by the highest names of the faculty of London, Paris, and the chief cities of Europe, as well as by eminent Physicians in this country. It is the only infallible remedy for NERVOUS, HEAD, and MIND COMPLAINTS—the mental physic so long sought for and never before found—the only agent that can administer to MIND DISEASES. It will remove all nervous affections, DEPRESSION, EXCITEMENT, incapacity to study or business, loss of MEMORY, CONFUSION, thoughts of self-destruction, fear of insanity, &c. It will restore the appetite, renew the health of those who have destroyed it by Sensual Excesses or evil practices. It has been said by some that those disorders, emissions, &c., were incurable. DR, MORSE'S INVIGORATING CORDIAL has cured.

This, however, is not the fact.

DR. MORSE'S INVIGORATING CORDIAL has cured. is constantly curing, these complaints—relieving the mtal and bodily incapacity of the unfortunate sufferer, as following testimony of the names received will conclusively show:

Dr. Woodward, of ——, Massachusetts Insane Hospital, writes of one of his patients being cured by using this Cordial thus: "It gives me pleasure to inform you that one of my patients, while in Boston, procured some of your Cordial. He tells me that he has not had a single emission sines he commenced taking it, while before he had two or three a week. When he applied to me," says Dr. W., "I thought it hardly possible for him ever to regain his full strength. I prescribed the usual medicine used in those cases in the hospital, but they had no effect. In the mean time he purchased some of your Cordial, which has effected a cure I am sure no other medicine would. I shall ever recommend it, whenever an opportunity occurs."

The nature of the maladies relieved by this Cordial are generally such as to leave the publication of certificates of cures cut of the question. The proprietor could produce a host of the most conclusive testimony to show that the great reputation it enjoys was not accidentally obtained, but is firmly based upon its positive and apparently miraculous virtues. In all directions are to be found the happy parents of healthy offsprings, who would not have been so but for this extraordinary preparation. And it is equally potent for many diseases for which it is recommended.

THE MEDICAL JOURNALS

have not, in a single instance that has been authenticated, given their sanction to any other preparation for the above complaints. It has, in many violent and desperate cases, effected radical cures, after patients had been authoniced, and their condition pronounced hopeless by medical practitioners of high professional character.

THE COMMON EXPRESSION

or those who have used this Extract is: "I had heard your Cordial highly spoken of, but was one of the incredulous in ively show:

THE COMMON EXPRESSION or those who have used this Extract is: "I had heard your Cordial highly spoken of, but was one of the incredulous in regard to its merits, having tried various medicines sold for the same purpose, (different Sarsaparillas,) without deriving any benefit. I had almost given up all hope of obtaining relief, whea I purchased some of your Cordial. I had no faith whatever of its benefiting me—but it has. I feel stronger, have had no emissions since, although it is not three weeks. I am satisfied that the half a dozen bottles I took will cure me."

Another says: "I had consulted several distinguished physicians. Some said I could not be cured; others prescribed this thing and that; but I found no relief until I procured some of your Cordisl. I must say it completely procured some of your Cordial. I must say it completely cured me.;

Another says: "I was surprised at the effect your Cordial had. Why had I not heard of it before? It would have saved me so much expense, besides years of mental and bodily suffering."

OAUTION.—Ask for Dr. Morze's Cordial, and take no other, as there are worthless imitations which its unrivalled excellence, fame, and popularity have brought into the market. It will not hurt the most delicate female, but do good. Beware of all other Cordials, &c., and try only this. It is put up in pint bottles, with the words Dr. MORSE'S INVIGORATING CORDIAL blown on the glass. Price $3 per bottle; two bottles, $5; six bottles, $12; and $24 per dozon.

Office, No. 7 South Frederick street, Baltimore, Maryland, on the left hand side, going from Baltimore street, seven doors from the corner. Be particular in observing the name and number, or you will mistake the place.

DR. JOHNSTON,
Member of the Royal College of Surgeons, London, Graduate from one of the most eminent Colleges of the United States, and the greater part of whose life has been spent in the Hospitals of London, Paris, Philadelphis, and elsewhere, has effected some of the most astonishing cures that were ever known. Many troubled with ringing in the ears and head when asleep, great nervousness, being alarmed at sudden sounds, and bashfulness, with frequent blushing, attended sometimes with derangement of mind, were cured immediately.

TAKE PARTICULAR NOWICE

TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE.

Dr. J. addresses all those who have injured themselves by private and improper indulgences, that secret and solidary habit, which ruin both body and mind, unfitting them for either business or society.

These are some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, viz: Weakness of the Back and Limbs, Pains in the Head, Dimness of Sight, Loss of Muscular Power, Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspepsia, Nervous Irritability, Derangement of the Digestive Functions, General Debility, Symptoms of Consumption, &c., &c.

Mentally.—The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded. Loss of Memory, Confusion of Ideas, Depression of Spirits, Evil Forebodings, Aversion of Society, Self Distrust, Love of Solitude, Timidity, &c., are some of the evils produced.

NERVOUS DEBILITY.

NERVOUS DEBILITY.

Weakness of the system, Nervous Debility and premature decay generally arise from the destructive habit of youth that solitary practice so fatal to the bealthful existence or man, and it is the young who are most spt to become it Victims, from an ignorance of the dangers to which they subject themselves. Parents and Guardians are often mis subject themselves. Parents and Guardians are often mis-led with respect to the cause or source of disease in their sons and wards. Alas! how often do they ascribe to other causes the wasting of the frame, Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, derangement of the Nervous System, Cough, and Symptoms of Consumption; also those serious Mental effects, such as loss of Memory, Depression of Spirits, or peculiar fits of Melancholy, when the truth is, they have been caused by indulging in Peralcious but alluring prac-tices, destructive to both Body and Mind. Thus are swept from existence thousands who might have been of use to their Country, a pleasure to their friends, and ornaments to Society.

from existence thousands who might have been of use to their Country, a pleasure to their friends, and ornaments to Society.

DR. JOHNSTON'S INVIGORATING REMEDY FOR ORGANIC WEAKNESS.

This grand and important Remedy has restored strength and vigor to thousands of the most debilitated individuals, many who had lost all hopes, and been abandoned to die. By its complete invigoration of the Nervous System, the whole faculties become restored to their proper power and functions, and the fallen fabric of life is raised up to beauty, consistency and duration, upon the ruins of an emacdated and premature decline, to sound and pristine health. Oh, how happy have hundreds of misguided youths been made, who have been suddenly restored to health from the devastations of those terrific maladies which result from indiscretion! Such persons, before contemplating MARRIAGE, should reflect that a sound mind and bedy are the most necessary requisites to promote counublal happiness. Indeed, without this, the journey through life becomes a weary pilgrimage; the prospect heurly darkens to the view; the mind becomes shadowed with despair, and filled with the melantholy reflection that the happiness of another becomes blighted with our own. Let no false delicacy prevent you, but apply immediately.

He who places himself under the care of Dr. Johnston may religiously confide in his honor as a Gentleman, and confidently rely upon his skill as a Physician.

The many thousands cured at this institution within the last ten years, and the numerous important Surgical Operations performed by Dr. J., witnessed by the Reporters of the papers and many other persons, notices of which have appeared again and again before the public, is a sufficient guara (by that the afflicted will find a skifful and honorable physician.

TAKE NOTICE TAKE NOTICE.

TAKE NOTICE.

It is with the greatest reluctance that Dr. Johnston pernits his card to appear before the public, deeming it unprecessional for a physician to advertise; but unless he did so, the afflicted, especially strangers, could not fall to fall into the hands of these imprudent, boasting impostors—individually. als destitute of knowledge, name, and character-pedlar uals destitute of knowledge, name, and character—pediars, shoemakers, mechanics, &c., advertising themselves as physicians; ignorant quacks, who keep you trifling month after month, as long as possible, and in despair leave you with ruined health to sigh over your galling disappointment. It is this motive alone that induces Dr. J. to advertise, for he alone can cure you. To those unacquainted with his reputation he deems it necessary to say, that his credentials or diplomas always hang in his Office.

JOHN L. SMITH.

Justice of the Peace, 8th street. UNITED STATES HOTEL,

WASHINGTON, D. C. P. W. BROWNING, Proprietor. AMERICAN TELEGRAPH. Native and Adopted.

The constitution suggests but little difference between native and adopted citizens; the American people generally desire to make none; and adopted citizens stand greatly in their own light when they do.

At a meeting of German citizens in New York, few days ago, it was resolved that they hail the nomination of Winfield Scott and William A. Graham as a happy one; that they give it their hearty approval, and will support it in the election; that they, as American citizens of German birth, aim at realizing those elements of progress which are contained in the principles of the national Whig party; that they will use their efforts to spread the principles of liberty and independence upon which our Union is based, and for which our heroic leader, Major General Winfield Scott, has risked his life in numerous battles; that, as German-speaking Americans, they do in nowise intend to separate themselves from their English-speaking fellow-eitizens, or aim at separate ends, out wish to become cordially united with them in good harmony for a common cause—the prosperity of the people, the advancement of our country's well-being, and the principles of liberty and independence upon which this Union is founded.

Such sentiments as these do honor to the men who express them, and give the best possible guaranties of the devotion of their professors. The attempts hitherto but too often successfully made by our opponents, by appeals to citizens of European birth, as such, can no longer avail, when such views as these are entertained; and thus another of the arts of demagoguism falls to the ground.

A Federalist.

A New Hampshire paper, says the Richmond Whig, undertakes to stigmatize Gen. Scott, by calling him a "Federalist." It does not condescend to inform us what sort of a Federalist—
"black-cockcade" or "blue-light." If either of hese, if history does not lie, and people are not inconsistent, he should be very popular in New Hampshire; for the Granite Hills were very pro-ific of both these sorts of Federalists. Gen. He was pre-eminently the hero of the War of 1812, and his body was loaded with British lead. If his support of Jefferson, Madison, and Monroe, and his overwhelming defeats of the British, constitute him a Federalist, he is one of the rankest to be found! Perhaps the New Hampshire Patriot can tell is what militiamen those were who, when the British, on the heights of Queenstown, by mere dint of numbers, were overwhelming and butch-ering American soldiers, stood with folded arms n this side of the Niagara, and refused to budge to their assistance, from constitutional scruples May be they were modern Democrats from New Hampshire! - Fairmount (Va.) WHAT IS A FOP?-The fop is a complete specimen of an outside philosopher. He is one-third collar, one-sixth patent leather, one-fourth stick, and the rest gloves and hair. As to his remote ancestry there is some doubt, but it is now pretty well settled that he is the son of a tailor's goose. Nevertheless, such men are useful. If there were no tadpoles there would be no frogs. They are not so entirely to blame for being devoted to externals. Paste diamonds must have a splendid setting to make them sell. Only it does seem a waste of material to put five dollars' worth of beaver on five cents' worth of brains.

Who is Winfield Scott? What has He done to merit Our Grati-

These questions have been thus answered: At the age of twenty-one, and in the summer of 1807, he volunteered into a troop of Virginia horse.

In 1812 he fought the battle of Queenstown Heights.

In 1813 he was the instrument of saving our Irish citizens, taken in arms against the British, from the savage penalties of the English law of constructive treason. In the same year he fought, as Colonel, in the battle of Fort George.

In 1814 he made a new army and restored the military spirit of the country-took Fort Eriefought the battle of Chippewa-and fought the good fight of Lundy's Lane.

In 1832 he won the proud title of the "Hero of Humanity," by nursing the sick and dying troops of his army, upon which the Asiatic cholera fell blightingly, on its march to the field of the Black Hawk war.

In the same year, by negotiation, and not by force of arms, he brought the Black Hawk war to a just and favorable issue. In the same year he soothed the spirit of South ern Nullification, and saved our country from civil discord. In 1836 he served against the Seminole Indians in Florida.

In 1837, with admirable energy and tact, and without troops, he calmed the patriot disturbances upon our extended Northern frontier. In the same year he effected the removal of the Cherokees, in a manner that won the gratitude of the noble tribe and the admiration of his whole country.

In 1839 he earned the distinguished title of The Pacificator of the Northeastern Boundary, and saved his country from a bloody and wasteful war with Great Britain. In 1847 he opened the splendid military drama of the second conquest of Mexico, by reducing the city of Vera Cruz and the impregnable Castle of San Juan d'Ulloa after an active siege of but four days.

April the 8th, he fought and won the admirable battle of Cerro Gordo, and opened to the Americans the path to the dominion of the entire Western Continent. On the 19th of April he entered the city of

On the 22d of April, he occupied Perote. On the 15th of May, he took Puebla. On the 20th of August, he won the three great rictories of Contreras, San Antonio, and Churu-

THE THUNDER CLAP '-The revelation of Gen. very and the fugitive slave law has thrown the Washington Union into fits. We never saw anything so frantic. In its rage it abuses everybody. Never was there anything so infamous as the Whigs exposing the private and confidential opinions of Gen. Pierce—opinions uttered six months ago, away down in New Hampshire, and only intended for home consumption! Oh, it was too bad! And then the Union does not believe a word of it! It is true, the publications were made in two different Democratic papers, long before General Pierce was thought of for the Presidency, and the accounts agree exactly. But t exposes Democratic imposture, and therefore it is not to be credited!

Men and Principles.

In the selection of Gen. Pierce as a candidate for the Presidency, our friends on the other side may have intended some meaning known to them-selves, or they may have been driven to that nomination by a feeling of utter despair. That or nothing might have been the alternatives be-fore them. We do not undertake to judge as to their motives in the matter; but we submit it to the common sense of the country if some a pology is not due to the sovereign people of this land for being summoned so unceremoniously and so suddenly to cast their votes for a man for the high office of President whom they knew nothing about; whom they do not care for at all, personally considered; who has done nothing to connect his name with any beneficent public measure; who, in fact, stands simply on the general level of common men, with no claim to more than a neighborhood popularity, or to such distinction as New Hampshire bestows upon her Hills and Hales.

Let it not be supposed that we design in any manner to depreciate Gen. Pierce. No, let him have the full benefit of every estimable quality which his character has disclosed since his nomination for the Presidency, with a gracious oblivion of every fault or weakness that may have beset him before. We could wish that he were a worthier and an abler man than even his eulogists dare venture to represent him. For the Whig champion, in the panoply of his power, deserves a foe of some repute, whose discomfore may add something to the trophies of his prowess. It was deemed too great an honor in ancient times for an ignoble soul to have it to boast that he fell beneath the spear of Achilles.

We have, therefore, nothing whatever to say in disparagement of Gen. Pierce. If his friends will make tolerable eulogies upon him, such as may be read without too much violence upon credulity, we will quote the most eloquent pas-sages from the same, and give them to our readers with appropriate notes and comments. Can charity go further? We will lend our humble aid to adorn the victim for the sacrifice next November—so that he may go, for his country's good and his own, with a gallant bearing to his doom; and as he shall bid adieu to all those aspirations for the Presidency which the unkind officiousness of mistaken friends has thrust upon his unambitious soul, he may exclaim with heartfelt sincerity, in the language of Cassius, "This parting was well made."

No doubt of it. The voice of the country which shall pronounce in favor of an older and a better soldier will be regarded by Gen Pierce as a proclamation of justice, to which, in the modesty of his nature, he will bow-and in his inward convictions, no doubt, he will look upon the office of President, as he did upon that of General, as a post for which he is, by education, habits, and capacity, altogether unfit.

"The Whigs rely exclusively upon General Scott's military services to elect him."-Enquirer. You are mistaken, neighbor! They rely upon all his services. They know of no better evidence of a man's ability and willingness to serve his country than the fact that he has rendered to it great services. They hold that General Scott's military achievements do argue great devotion to and love of country, and that they should not constitute any objection to him. They hold also that his acts as a negotiator are little less brilliant than his feats in arms and prove him as eminently fitted for civil administration as for the conduct of war. The fact is, that General Scott has been charged, in civil as in military Congress, in which body he served until 1828, at affairs, with many of the most delicate and im-which period he became a Senator of the United portant trusts, and he has never failed in a sin-States, and served till 1842-3.
